WENGER[®]

THE GENUINE SWISS ARMY KNIFE™

“To every problem
there is already a solution
whether you know it or not”

Greenville Kleiser

Wherever they go, they go confidently. Without hesitation. Without a single crease across their brows. They support and protect those around them, but depend on no one. They worry about nothing, but are prepared for anything. They don't see themselves as heroes. Or wizards. Or even better than anyone else. That's because they take their ability to figure stuff out as no big deal. Routine, really. We know better. We've been designing pocket knives for them for over 100 years. We know they have a special knack. An uncommon resourcefulness and sense of personal resolve. This catalog is dedicated to the Problem Solvers. Not the flashiest group of customers out there. But like those members of the Swiss Army who carry our knives to this day, they're still the people we admire the most.

Solve Problems

EvoGrip™ S557 #16813 EVOGRIP

13 implements/19 functions
3.25"/4.5 oz.

EvoGrip

In 2005 we created the first ergonomic Swiss Army knife, making resourcefulness more comfortable than ever before.

Now the EvoGrip expands on that advance. The four major areas of contact a user makes when utilizing an EvoGrip knife are embedded with non-slip rubber increasing each knife's safety, performance and efficiency. EvoGrip is truly a symbol of our unwillingness to be satisfied with a classic – even after more than a century.

I can...

- Pick the ice out of my Telemark bindings.
- Carve some new tent stakes to replace the ones that are still on the shelf in the garage.
- Remove splinter from right thumb (see item above).
- Bring freshly cut evergreen boughs home in hopes my wife will forgive me for spending the weekend without her.
- Solve problems.

Evolution

Ergonomics: ten years ago, you probably wouldn't have recognized the word. And while it's true that ergonomic products are more prevalent than ever, the word itself dates to 1857. That's half a century before the Swiss Army issued its troops with the knife which would become an icon of innovation and versatility. Evolution employs concave and convex contact points which are positioned to fit the human hand perfectly. Hold one and you'll understand.

Soft Touch

Just as there are times when you can't afford to slip up, there are times when you want to show a more comfortable, smoother side. Suave. Sophisticated. Those are times to apply the Soft Touch, our ergonomic Swiss Army knife with a silky, rubberized coating. People can't keep their hands off it (which opens up a whole new world of problem solving).

Evolution Lock

Grip is good. Comfort is good. Silky smoothness is good. But none of it means anything if a blade accidentally closes on your hand. For the safety-conscious we offer nine models of our genuine Swiss Army knives with a locking main blade. And in addition to the obvious feature of locking the blade in the open position, our locks have a positive stop at 60 degrees on their return – which allows the user to clear their fingers before the blade closes and returns to the body of the knife.

Nail Clipper

After more than a century, you'd think that every implement that could possibly be folded into a Swiss Army Knife had already been added. But you'd be wrong, as we proved with the addition of nail clippers in 2006. Of course, in true Swiss Army fashion, nail clippers are capable of doing much more than simply clipping nails (we're sure you've got a few ideas already).

Swiss Clipper AT #16918 NAIL CLIPPER

Standard Issue

This is it: the genuine article, issued to soldiers in the Swiss Army itself. Manufactured to exacting demands and specifications since 1901, the original soldiers' knife has undergone 11 revisions in its 106 year history. The sharp-eyed may note that its cross is Swiss heraldic, and not that of the Wenger brand; but rest assured that its soul is the very same as every one of the knives which bears our logo.

I can...

- Fish the directions to the birthday party from between the armrest and driver's seat.
- Cut a piece of cheese in half because both twins want "that one" and not one of the other 12 pieces on the platter.
- Gently scrape make-your-own pizza dough out of the host's nice, new deep-pile carpeting.
- open a bottle of wine to share with the rest of the moms. Red if it's a chocolate birthday cake. White if it's vanilla.
- Solve problems.

Large Mountain Bike

If you've spent any time around cyclists, you know that they're simply obsessed with the weight (and strength) of components. So there could be no more natural fit than a single Swiss Army knife chock-full of bicycle repair tools (23 functions and only 6.1 ounces). Broken chain? If you've got the repair rivet, we've got the rivet setter. And so on.

Alinghi

A sailor's knife from a land-locked country might be unexpected to those who don't follow the sport. It's actually quite natural when you consider that only three countries have won the America's Cup on multiple occasions, Switzerland being the latest addition. In 2003, the Swiss-lead Team Alinghi returned the cup to Europe for the first time since the inaugural race in 1851, then won it again in 2007 – each member of that team carrying their official knife: the Alinghi Yachtsman from Wenger.

I can...

- Cut the cap off my client's cigar.
- Tighten the set screws on the back of my client's laptop.
- Remove the cap from my client's $8 bottle of India Pale Ale microbrew.
- Slice open the envelope containing our renewed contract.
- Solve problems.

The Giant

Unrivaled. Impractical. Unabashedly enormous. More knife than you could comfortably carry in one hand, let alone in a pocket. Call it what you will, it doesn't matter: there's still some part of every hobbyist, tinkerer, and collector that cries out to own one. Guinness recognized it as the "most multifunctional penknife" in the world (although "penknife" is something of an understatement, they didn't have a category for "does-everything-knife"). We call it The Giant, but every other multifunction tool wannabe out there calls it "Daddy".

The Giant #16999 ELITE

 87 implements/141 functions
8.75" wide, 2 lbs. 11 oz.
